

30 Day Program to Bring Out the Best in your Child: Spend quality time together by playing, talking and helping your child become a caring, generous and authentic person, for a happy future!

This program is for parents who have little time, so they want to make it quality time spent with their children. It contains easy communication exercises and activities which only require 10 minutes a day to do with your child and which will help your child discover their unique potential. It provides parents with coaching techniques so you can enable your child's development of important life skills and values, such as kindness, respect, empathy, self-awareness, and self-confidence. The activities will teach your child how to understand his/her own needs, what makes them happy, what makes them unique, and how to relate to others. It provides a powerful way to talk to your child and the structured approach enables you to form positive interaction habits. The program was developed together with parents from all over the world who are deeply involved in their children's personal growth and is a collection of tested best practices.
