

A story about a young girl from a small, coastal town in Northern California who is making that change from adolescent high schooler to mature, responsible college student. She leaves behind family and takes off with her two best friends to discover where she belongs in college or singing in a band. As life changes faster than she anticipates from the first day of school at Fremont University to the never-ending drama of a young adult struggling to find herself and live on her own as an up and coming diva. Will her band make it? Will she choose a major? Will she choose her band or college? How will she manage both? How will she manage those that come into her life as a virgin in the sex driven music industry of Fremont.
