

Johnathon is the perfect match for Naomi so why isn't she convinced that God has chosen him for her husband? When a troubled young man joins the Amish community she wonders if God is giving her a sign. After Johnathon asks Naomi if he can bring her home from the Sunday sing, life suddenly gets complicated. Offending a potentially perfect beau causes raised eyebrows in her Amish community and Naomi is pressed upon to make amends. Naomi turns to God and asks for a sign to help her understand God's will. Matters take a turn for the worse when Johnathon has an almost fatal accident at the hands of a handsome and troubled stranger. Is God tasking Naomi to help this young man? Can it be that this unlikely person with all of his problems is the one he has chosen for her?
