

Announcing the Kingdom provides a comprehensive survey of the biblical foundation of mission. It investigates the development of the kingdom of God theme in the Old Testament, describing what the concept tells us about Gods mission in creation, the flood, and the covenant with Abraham. It then describes Gods mission through the nation of Israel during the exodus, at Mt. Sinai, and through the kings of Israel. The book then examines Gods mission as Israel is sent into exile and the stage is set for the Messiahs coming. Finally, the book considers the fulfillment of the kingdom of God through Jesus Christ and the church. It examines Jesus parables and ministry, his proclamation of Gods kingdom among the nations, and the work of the Holy Spirit through the church. Announcing the Kingdom is the product of Arthur Glassers more than thirty years of teaching and has been used by thousands of students at Fuller Theological Seminary. Now revised by Glassers colleagues, this study provides mission workers and students with a new understanding of their calling and its biblical foundation.
