

This publication, Army Regulation AR 530-1 Operations Security September 2014, fully implements National Security Decision Directive 298, Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff Instruction 3213.01D, Joint Publication 3â€“13.3, and Department of Defense directive 5205.02E and Department of Defense 5205.02â€“M. This regulation states Army policy on operations security program development, revises terminology, provides details on the operations security planning process, and outlines the operations security review, assessment and survey requirements. The Army operations security program authority is consistent with Joint policy and doctrine in Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff Instruction 3213.01D and Joint Publication 3â€“13.3. In Joint and Army operations, operations security is an information-related capability integrated by Information Operations as prescribed in Joint Publication 3â€“13.
