

This drawing book is a different sort of art and illustration book for kids. It's perfect for students of all ages but specifically for preschool, kindergarten, and 1st Grade artists. This drawing book uses a classic and familiar literary tale and bedtime story, The Little Red Hen, to give children the fantastic opportunity to illustrate exactly what they see in their minds while reading the story or while the story is read to them. Elementary grade art teachers, homeschool teachers, and parents will find this drawing book particularly useful as a daily art lesson/exercise. This is the perfectly sized art and drawing book for young hands. The simple art of illustrating a classic story will provide endless hours of fun for young minds as they decide between colors and shapes to draw; art mediums—crayons, colored pencils, markers, art chalk etc. to bring their art to life on the pages. This art and drawing book can be used with a collective group of students during art lab or as a blackboard copy activity by teachers (the teacher draws a picture on the board and the students imitate what they see). The possibilities are endless. Indoor drawing and art time has never been so fun. This hands-on art and illustration drawing book for preschool, kindergarten, and 1st grade students is a treasure that can be kept forever or given as a gift to grandparents and family members.
