

Cassie couldn't put her finger on the one thing that was making her feel so bad. Was it because her best friends spent most of the afternoon talking and laughing with a complete stranger and ignoring her? After the Misty Falls Fair fiasco, Cassie thinks her life is returning to normal. But that's before she and J.J. meet a curious new friend, Robyn, whose friendship with J.J. is a little too close for Cassie's comfort. Is J.J. really growing closer to Robyn than Cassie? And can Cassie learn to develop a love that includes Robyn, too?
