

Between the Margins is a collection of over 125 timely articles that focus on American politics and parties, candidates and their conventions and on the volatile state of the U.S. economy. Written by a former U.S. Diplomat turned political commentator/analyst who lived and worked in over 24 countries, the book is laced with humor especially in the personal glimpses into the life of an unedited mind. Chapters include: PC-Politically Charged, Wrangling Economics, Elections and campaigns and Is this America. Other titles by Stephan Helgesen include: The Black Art of Marriage: A Handbook for the newly or nearly married man and Embracing the Inner Circle.
