

Roman Karve is New York City's third wealthiest man. He's dominant, kinky, and in search of true love. He's also accustomed to boys who use him for private jet rides to Hawaii and new Armani suits. So for his next quest in long term romance, he decides to go incognito. He knows exactly what he's looking for: A puppy of a boy who will obey him, adore him, and, above all, be loyal to him. He wants an intense connection with someone who has no idea Roman owns the biggest hotel chain in the world. Logan Seaborn is new to the city and clueless about everything else. He wants a Dom, and frequents Manhattan's Puppy Love Club in an ongoing, futile search for the right man. Of course, he has no idea what "the right man" means, until a half-Greek, half-Argentinian god offers to take him home. There's just one condition: If Logan's going to leave the club with this man, then he has to do so in a leash and collar. * * * * "Master," he gasped. The word was swallowed against Roman's unrelenting lips. This was just a kiss, that was all this was, but Logan was consumed. He needed "everything" badly "now." "Please," he cried. "Please, it aches." A finger against his lips. He could feel Roman's chest pounding forcefully against him. "Hush," said Roman. "I haven't even reached your freckles yet. If you wanted to come in under three hours, you should have told me you had work in the morning." Roman took him again, lips to Logan's panting mouth, fingers rough and tangled in his hair. Roman pulled away for a moment, and Logan breathed hard. He closed his eyes and felt the tip of Roman's tongue touch his cheek. He forgot he had freckles most of the time, but, as his mouth was given a break, he sunk into the mattress and allowed his sun-kissed skin to be adored. This was bad. One night stands had left him feeling attached before "the morning after, when he wanted to stay and that inclination wasn't required. It wasn't exactly hard for Logan to fall, but holy hell "how was he going to survive when this gorgeous man was kissing his freckles? Roman had a body made to worship but did the worshipping himself. He raised his knee and it brushed against Logan's inner thigh. Logan cried out, a flair of pleasure, and Roman made an indulgent, rumbling sound from deep in his throat. "My poor puppy," he sighed, nose pressed against Logan's skin as he inhaled. "If you want to whimper and whine and woof, that would turn me on like hell."
