

There is a Two Pence piece worth GBP500+ that you just might, if you're very lucky, find in your change. There are other scarce British coins and banknotes that you might also come across and until now you would never even know! With this book every non-coin collector can now become informed about the whole range of decimal British coinage from 1968 to now. Every single coin type is illustrated in full colour, so it's easy to see all the 320+ different coins that have been possible to collect from circulation in the last 39 years. The banknote serial numbers that are the rarest, the coin dates that are very difficult to find in your change and full listings and specifications of modern British money.
