

Kelli Christi has been abandoned by her husband. She and her two young children face a life of destitution alone in a new town besieged by rig workers from the current North Dakota oil boom. At least until the intervention of a quiet, bull riding, cowboy makes her question the validity of her entire desperate life with her ex-husband. Could it be she never knew love? Is he real, or will she lose what little she has left, and more, chasing after a cowboy who only promises to save her?
