

This timely piece looks to answer many questions about our missions on earth, and how the enemy works tirelessly to divert, delay and pervert our assignments and missions. The author pointed out that everyone who visits earth has two main missions to accomplish before transitioning, and that the accomplishment of these missions depends partly on God and partly on the missionary. You are encouraged to educate yourself on many never-before-heard secrets which the LORD has poured out through this woman of God. Be blessed as you read in Christ name. Amen.
