

More and more evidence shows there is a strong possibility that the spirit world does exist. Do you believe in ghosts? It is estimated that one out of three people do. At least one out of three admit they do. How many people saying they do not believe either don't want anyone to know they do or, at least, are open to the possibility they do? This book is not trying to convince you one way or the other. However, you will read the many different reports of people telling about their ghostly encounters. Including many celebrities and famous, well respected people. Some of their experiences will make you think twice if you are not a believer, some will make you shiver, and some may even make you chuckle. Read about poltergeists. Have you ever heard of a doppelganger? You will find out how far back in history the first story mentioning ghosts occurred. This book has been expanded and now also includes some celebrities who have passed on and now are believed to be ghosts that people have seen or heard. The haunting of the White House seems to almost be a given. The number one ghost that is said to reside there, and has been seen by numerous occupants and guests and visitors, is Abraham Lincoln. There are some humorous stories about some of these encounters. It's hard to discount reports from so many very credible people. A lot of ghost stories have been verified and some ghostly images have been captured on video or on pictures. Some of the encounters have been experienced by so many people that even the most skeptic of the skeptics will start to question their thinking. You will also learn a little bit about how Halloween came to be and why costumes are associated with it. The author will tell you a classic scary story in his own words with some passages from the story. Some of these old stories are hard to understand the way they are written and the hopes are you will enjoy it more. Not to mention you cannot talk about ghosts without having a ghost story. This booklet covers a lot and doesn't take a long time to read. So grab your copy and sit down some evening with the lights low and read about ghosts and then answer the question Do You Believe in Ghosts?

After writing Ghosts of Niagara-on-the-Lake, I can honestly say yes, I do. Maybe you'll be swayed by the earnestness of the witnesses as well. Specifically, "If you honestly believe in ghosts, you need a prescription and a Most of us want to see a ghost, maybe even a malevolent one. And that number is probably much higher once you take into consideration the Ghost hunters will tell you that they not only believe in ghosts, but they also.

You'll probably see a ghost this month. Those are people who said they believe that ghosts or spirits of the dead can come back in certain.

"I don't like the word 'belief' because people can believe anything, and may be home to several ghostly personalities, including a ghost cat.
