

Gone are the days when women left all money matters to the man of the family. Still, family finances continue to mystify many moms. Dollars & Sense is a practical, easy-to-understand guide that describes four money management styles that will help moms discuss and handle finances more effectively. Author Cynthia Sumner discusses a wide range of moms financial concerns, from the big issues like how to save money, set goals, and teach kids responsible money habits to the knit-picky mechanics of managing bank accounts and establishing credit. No matter what their financial situation, moms everywhere will find these specific suggestions and practical tips invaluable as they learn how to regain or improve their family finances.
