

Nine-and-a-half-year-old Russell James finds that a hard head makes a soft behind when he tries to catch a catfish by hand. A giant glob of Gurdys Greasy Grape Groaners Gum attacks eleven-year-old Shaniqua Godette, who learns the hard way that you should never leave your pocketbook on the floor. And when twelve-year-old height-challenged Tucker Willis saves a life with the help of a ghost, he proves that big things come in small packages. A celebration of storytelling and folk wisdom, this is a perfect collection for sharing and reading aloud. Notes at the end explain the origins of the proverbs and the background of the stories.
