

At some point or another, most people go from being avid artists as very young children to being people who are convinced that they cannot draw. The issue is that they are drawing comparisons between themselves and professional artists, and this makes them feel embarrassed and self-conscious about their doodles. With a doodling diary, you can reclaim the artistic expression and ease with art that you once had. Doodling becomes something relaxing and joyful, and some people even reawaken an interest in art in this way!
