

Rejecting simplifying notions of globalisation as a macro-economic force, this book provides a grounded picture of the various ways in which peoples biographies are tied up with the global cultural economy. The main argument of the book is that the globalisation of lives is experienced by people as the extension of their milieux both spatially and symbolically.

The idea of 'milieu' has always linked people to their surroundings. The main argument developed throughout the books is that the globalization of their lives is .
