

In this third installment of the Family Forever series, author Tamara Miller once again tackles the ties that bind and the hardships that threaten to undo the generations of a single family in Pomona, California. When Eric encounters his long-lost love, Jani, they cannot deny their feelings and rekindle the relationship theyâ€™d ended as teenagers. But as their relationship grows more serious, Jani wonders if Eric will truly accept the responsibility of taking on her daughter, Angie, and if his parents will approve of Eric marrying a divorced woman. When Eric and Jani marry, changes in the family dynamics throw the emotional equilibrium theyâ€™d worked so hard to achieve into jeopardy. Meanwhile, Janiâ€™s twin sister, Emma, and her husband, Brad, vow to strengthen their marriage, even as their relationship evolves with life changes. Through it all, Jani and Emmaâ€™s grandmother, Isla, offers support and care for her family. But when her own health takes a turn for the worse, she must rely on her daughter, Franny, who is already stretched to her limits. A sprawling saga about multiple generations of women within a single family, Betrayal and Blessings offers all the intrigue and drama of the best soap operas.
