

Building a successful business is all about marketing it successfully. This book will teach you how to outmarket and outsell your competitors without spending lots of money on advertising or promotion. You'll learn how to charge higher prices than the rest and still dominate the marketplace. To market your business, however, you need to know what to do and then actually do it. You also need to do these things in the correct order. This book will teach you how to out-market and out-sell your competitors without wasting lots of money on advertising or promotions that don't work. You'll learn how to charge higher prices than the rest and still dominate the marketplace. Let's face it, there are a great many wonderful ideas out there. Most people I meet find this very confusing and this paralyzes them, preventing them taking action. When you follow the logical structure I've outlined in this book and put these strategies into action you'll see steady and sizeable improvements in your sales and profits. In fact if you make just a 1% improvement per week in 5 key areas you'd make 7 or 8 times as much profit as now! You'll earn the money you've always dreamed of. You'll also find time away from your business to devote to your family, friends and pursue the sports and hobbies you wish to.
