

The Camino de Santiago (Saint James Way) is the 500-mile path that crosses northern Spain. Starting in the Basque region of southwestern France, the Camino takes pilgrims along a 1200 year-old route that includes mountain passes, tiny villages, magnificent cities, and breathtaking scenery. The Camino experience includes carrying everything--from clothing to toiletries to water--in a backpack. However, its not wilderness camping; rather a chance to see Spain and sleep each night in a welcoming place. In 2015, nearly 263,000 people from all over the world made the journey. Suzanne Ball explains how to plan and what to bring for this once-in-a-lifetime adventure. Besides listing the items to pack, she provides advice about: * Who walks the Camino...and why * What time of year to walk * How to choose the best gear * Packing light: what to take * Understanding the hostels, called albergues * Using resources and forums Suzanne walked the Camino when she was 65 years old. Besides sharing information and offering advice gathered from her 38-day pilgrimage, she especially encourages solo walkers, women, and Baby Boomers to follow her lead. Anyone who is contemplating walking--or preparing for the adventure--will find Follow the Yellow Arrows useful and interesting. Buen Camino!
