

Do you desire a close walk with God? Have you done your very best as a Christian but it feels like you are going through the motions? With all that you know about God do you still long for your own personal intimacy with Him? Stricken with years of tragic health and injury related setbacks the Holy Spirit opened a door for the author to simply start writing about the times of intimate fellowship he had when alone with Jesus. He discovered anew that his greatest treasure was kept safe and had become more precious than ever! He found it in the times he had been alone with God to listen, love and be loved in return. With a rich view of scripture, the author invites you to consider once again the extravagant invitation given by Jesus Christ to become a member of His family and of His kingdom. May you find rest in God with help offered in this kind and merciful devotional book. It is simply written and a joy to read. Truths of Gods love for you burst from its pages. May you experience Gods comfort in lifes most difficult hardships. This is a large volume, with over 460 pages, 8.5 x 11 inches, with 493 devotionals. It will quickly become a book to treasure for a lifetime.
