

This is one of the earliest books of letters and meditations on the fact that God is Love. This book lays the foundation for all books that follow in that it leads the reader into an experiential awareness of the the fact that God truly loves us and seeks to help set us free from the negativity of the world in which we live. This is not a theological treatise. On the contrary it is a collection of Meditations and Letters that promote the readers experience of the internal presence of the Love of God in his/her heart.
