

St. Joseph was a hub city for wagon trains going west. Jonah Alexander, a half-breed Indian did well here. His hard childhood had made him tough, unyielding and skeptical. Then Sunny Markley came to town with her beautiful smile, genuine personality and gentle heart. She was soon asking Jonah for things he couldn't give. There were lines he wasn't allowed to cross. It didn't take Sunny long to realize Jonah was not the dark, hard man that some people thought. He soon stole her heart, but she was halted by a jealous deputy, a depraved cowboy and the Civil War. Would God lead them back to each other, so they could make a life together?
