

These are written lessons I received from my spirit. Enchanting, words that weave their way to the truth about mankind's relationship with his spirit and higher powers. Honest and tender, with refreshing approaches to age old questions, and powerful laws. Lessons in truth and introspection, presented simply and to the point! God is FUN and this book proves it. After completion of the bookwork portion of The Course in Miracles I was promised the remainder of my life lessons would be provided by my spirit. I asked for clear concise communications in words I could understand and a month later I started writing. This Volume and the remaining two Volumes are the result of my asking and receiving.
