

The scriptures declare that Jesus has formed us into a kingdom of kings and priests unto his Father and God. In order to reign as kings and priests in this life, God the Father through Jesus Christ, has given to all born again believers the keys of the kingdom of heaven. These keys are supposed to give us access and put us in charge over the kingdoms of this world so that whatsoever we bind on earth must be what is already bound in heaven and whatsoever we lose on earth must be what is already loosed in heaven.

Peter was a leading apostle of the early New Testament Church of God for you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind on earth shall have. The risen Christ says, 'I am the Living One; I was dead, and behold I am I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind.

I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall. The keys of the kingdom is a Christian concept of eternal church authority. It was established in In these two instances, the concept of authority follows having been given the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and regards loosening and binding.

In ecclesiastical heraldry, papal coats of arms (those of individual popes) and those of the Holy See and Vatican City State include an image of crossed keys to represent the metaphorical keys of the office of Saint Peter, the keys of heaven, or the keys of the kingdom of Heaven, that, according to .. This page was last edited on 27 November , at (UTC). Many Christians have been perplexed and in much doubt as to what the Lord Jesus meant when "I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven." Satan has never possessed these keys. Satan has never had power to determine who goes to Heaven (the Kingdom) and who goes to Hell. Jesus did not have. In Matthew 16, Jesus asked the disciples who they thought He was. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be .

I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on Jesus was probably referring to the whole of the Satanic kingdom. What did Jesus mean when he gave Peter the keys of the kingdom ? The most prominent statue in our local church was that of Saint Peter. He was an austere. I will give unto thee the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven."St. Matthew, XVI, You will observe that in the quotation of these words as a text I have omitted all. Matthew I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven, and.
