

A beautiful African American supermodel is being serenaded by two heavenly Caucasian millionaires who both want to present her with engagement rings. After ten years on magazine covers, she is ready to give up the jet setting lifestyle and become the girl next door. She can't understand how come she seems to be in love with both men at the same time. She supposes it is probably because neither of them will take no for an answer. She has still, however, not made love to either of them, and since she can't seem to make up her mind, she supposes that whichever of them turns out to be the best lover, would definitely make her the best husband. They are both very similar in every other way. They are both rich, very handsome, very buff and very charming. They are also fun, exciting, thoughtful and caring. She now decides to do the unorthodox and spend a night with each of them to see what they are sexually made of. She gets a lot more than she bargained for, but just as she suspected, one is definitely a whole lot better at what he does than the other. Only which hunk will it be that outdoes himself in the bedroom?
