

Classic Book from the Worlds Greatest Literature. Beautiful Book with Great Illustration at the beginning of the book of Uncas and Hawkeye. Introduction states: It is believed that the scene of this tale, and most of the information necessary to understand its allusions, are rendered sufficiently obvious to the reader in the text itself, or in the accompanying note. Still there is so much obscurity in the Indian traditions, and so much confusion in the Indian names, as to render some explanation useful. The native warrior, in war, is daring, boastful, cunning, ruthless, self-denying and self-devoted: in peace, just, generous, hospitable, revengeful, superstitious, modest and commonly chaste. These are qualities, it is true, which are far the predominating traits of these remarkable people as to be characteristic. Wonderful book with great information. James Fenimore Cooper is the author of The Deerslayer, The Pathfinder, The Pioneers, The Prairie etc.
