

Anchored in concrete business examples and down-to-earth business language, Leading from the Heart guides the reader through the process of achieving consciousness, including specific personal exploration activities. It is built around four concepts which help readers assemble a beginners tool kit to use in preparing for higher levels of consciousness in their work:- There are two paths in life: the Path of Fear and the Path of Courage.- Leaders must do their own work before they can accomplish significant transformation in their companies- Organizational change and leadership development should begin by focusing on being rather than doing.- A work atmosphere that encourages more wholeness and a growth of spirit results in a company that is healthier both physically and competitively. This is an excellent guide for anyone looking to excel in the workplace. Guides the reader through the process of achieving consciousness. Shares the struggles that one will encounter in life and overcome. Written in practical , down-to-earth language.
