

I was supposed to be at Bible study and that is where I had been earlier, attempting to be a good Christian, as I had been raised to be. The daughter of a pastor, I had always, at least on some level, tried to do what was right. But I just wasn't sure anymore. At the Bible study all my questions had resurfaced and come crashing through my mind, and I hadn't been able to go on pretending... That night was the beginning of a new no-holds-barred search for truth in my life. If Christianity wasn't true, I wanted to know it so I could continue seeking truth somewhere else - because the one thing I did know after that night was that I couldn't believe this life is all there is. In the midst of her struggle with doubt Teresa Vining embarked on a journey to find the truth. She read and studied, tackling hard questions such as Is there really truth to be found? How was the universe created? Can the Bible be trusted? Why do the innocent suffer? Teresa has compiled the answers she found to create a book that offers help in sorting through such complex questions with honesty. Using an interactive format, the book is designed to help you decide where you stand. The quest to discover what you truly believe may seem daunting, but this book will help you unpack the questions and find resolution bit by bit. Your journey begins here.
