

Sandy Burke is a widow who refuses to go home and sit still, so she works as the head waitress in the local cafe. With all of the fishermen in town for Lake Sam Rayburns annual fishing event, Sandy is little concerned about the strange car parked across the street--until it follows her home! She finds herself in the wrong place at the wrong time and is kidnapped when her car is stolen! Whisked away to Southeastern Arizona, Sandy and her kidnapper bump into a young newlywed couple who are on a tightly-budgeted honeymoon. All of their lives are in danger, since a Mexican drug cartel operates nearby! Sandys faith in God will get her through, but will it be enough to save her and deliver them all?
