

Nature, Man and God all fit together to give a picture of life. These aspects of God's creation form a single yet separate whole. I wrote this book because I feel the poems include thoughtful themes about the basics of life. I enjoyed writing these verses and hope you will enjoy reading them. Barb Eisele worked with her husband of 55 years in northwestern Argentina. For 37 years she helped start churches and train church leadership. She enjoys teaching and working to promote church growth. Barb has studied at Gordon College in Wenham, MA and has a B.A. degree from The Kings College, now in the Empire State Building in New York City. Since retirement she has found pleasure and relaxation in writing prose and poetry that helps present the truth of God and His work. She now resides in Florida.
