

Excerpt from Old Testament Prophecy: Its Witness as a Record of Divine Foreknowledge; The Warburton Lectures for 1876 1880; With Notes on the Genuineness of the Book of Daniel and the Prophecy of the Seventy Weeks The Lectures which form the bulk of the present volume were delivered in the chapel at Lincolns Inn upon the foundation of Bishop Warburton, whose will directs that the lecturers endeavour to prove the truth of revealed religion in general, and of the Christian in particular, from the completion of those prophecies in the Old and New Testaments which relate to the Christian Church, especially to the apostasy of Papal Rome. Strictly speaking, however, I have confined myself to the confirmation of the Christian faith arising from the fulfilment of Old Testament prophecy in the person of Christ and the foundation of His Church, and have altogether left untouched the subjects of New Testament prophecy and the apostasy of Papal Rome, not because of any lesser interest seeming to attach to them, but because my own argument admitted of fuller and more complete development independently of and without them.
