

Through her personal story, inspiring quotes, and practical suggestions, Judi shows us that cancer and fear are messages to us to make lifestyle changes. This supportive book can help the newly diagnosed cancer patient ask better questions, understand there are alternative and integrated treatments which can work, and most of all, maintain hope. Even though traveling the cancer road was a rocky and difficult journey, it was also rewarding. The path through cancer requires enormous discipline, work, and change, yet it is filled with excitement, experiences and discoveries which can bring us to a new and better place, if we are open to possibilities and stay focused forward. This book includes tips and suggestions for cancer patients and for caretakers and supporters of the cancer patients.
