

Once, there was a little boy and his sister who had been placed in a home for orphaned children because they had no parents. The little boy and girl decided to run away to see if they could find someone to be their parents. In his second book, Richard Hurley takes the reader on another remarkable adventure of P.K. and T.K. While on a journey to find a family of their own, T.K. and P.K. find a young blind boy on his own search for a family. After meeting a magical clown at a circus, T.K. and P.K. were endowed with magical powers. In P.K. and T.K. and the Little Blind Boy, they find great use for the powers in helping the young blind boy find himself a family. Children of all ages are sure to enjoy this second adventure of P.K. and T.K.
