

What if we were to find evidence we have lived before? And what if the bittersweet love affair of this lifetime can be remedied in the next? When Mattie's son makes up tales of a past life, it is dismissed as high intelligence, overactive imagination. But then a WWII diary is found. Witty and entertaining, its fascinating details force Mattie to question everything she's ever believed in. Inspirational. Thought-provoking. A novel about love, life, and what lies beyond. Shortlisted for the Writers' Village International Novel Award.
