

Soldier of Zion is an anthology of engrossing short stories written by an ex-soldier of the Israeli Defense Force. Nissim endures a nervous breakdown, Avi gets prosecuted by a Swedish hippie for war crimes he didn't commit, and a shattered draftee reclaims his identity in the company of rebellious men. Writing in an authentic, dark, and humorous voice, Solomon Gabriel Azoulay offers a glimpse into the intricacies of military service as well as life in a militant society. The unique worlds of the characters invite readers to walk a mile in a soldier's shoes, to confront matters of Judaism, spirituality, self-image, Zionism and the human soul.
