

Think of an event that rocked your world so much you felt like your life was spinning out of control. Did you feel like nothing made sense? Did you feel hopeless? Carmen suddenly finds herself thrust into a world of uncertainty swirling around her. After being torpedoed with a career killer, Carmen struggles to understand how everything she's ever worked for could be swept out from under her. Recounting events throughout her entire working life, from child modeling to administering federal grants for one of the largest metropolitan areas in the country, Carmen searches for where she went wrong while seeking retribution for her unceremonious dismissal from a career cultivated over a decade. Her journey of reflection and self-discovery leads to legal recourse that releases shocking revelations that exceed any manipulation anyone ever thought possible. The tribunal disclosures send consequences rippling all the way up to one of the nation's largest executive agencies, forcing congressional action.
