

Inspired by the poetic language of the Bible, by its stories, its twists and turns and unexpected heroes, Kendra Lacy writes more than sixty haiku, highlighting events from both the Old and New Testament. Here, Lacy uses haiku as miniature revelations, distilling and breaking down stories into their essential parts and thereby allowing their very essence to breathe. Creation From nothing and then everything, stars swirling, cascading light show. Eden Soft spring smells, the earth unfolds, spreads out, stretches its wings and turns sunward. Beginning with Genesis and ending with Pentecost, Lacy's haiku capture and complement the original stories, exploring and revealing their gorgeous depths.
