

Capitalism is the economic foundation that gives the individual freedom to function with accountability in the civil society. No other economic system affords an individual this much freedom and respect to govern their own actions. This has been lost upon the intellect of general populaces around the globe due to a lack of exposure and understanding. Until now. This book begins the enlightenment of the mind in a way that is easier to understand and will help the concerned individual better able to discuss the merits upon which their personal freedom in society is based.
