

The intrepid psychic detectives of Snowe Agency are once again on a case, this time investigating the murder of Miss Annamae Dyer, a wealthy old woman who was clubbed to death in her own study. There is no shortage of suspects -- her nephew, Robert Dyer, who inherited most of her money; her elder niece, Katherine Yates, who is a scheming social climber who would do anything to protect her reputation; her younger niece, Marie Mackenzie, an aspiring artist who hated her aunt with great enthusiasm; her downtrodden cousin, Donna Skelly, who was mistreated and taken advantage of by the whole family; and her cold, analytical personal assistant, Taylor Bradford, who had no particular love for any of them. All of them had reasons to want the old lady out of the way. But who actually swung the weapon? Its up to Bethany, Seth, Troy, Jeff, and Callista, and of course the elegant, silver-haired Mr. Parsifal Snowe, to figure it out -- before the killer strikes again.
