

It reminds me of an Agatha Christie novel. ...an exceptional job of showing that the subgenre can still be thoroughly entertaining. Great story. Lord Charles Stewart and school teacher Mary Hastings team up in this thriller set in Yorkshire, England of 1928. The peaceful, rural countryside betrays the evil lurking in the heart of a killer whose identity must be determined before more victims are claimed. Charles and Mary have little information to go on and little time. Fans of Golden Age mysteries will love The Enemy in Our Midst.
