

The Greedy Mouth and Upset Stomach is a funny and entertaining story which captures the imagination of young children with a hilarious conversation between the mouth and the stomach. Follow the smart-talking mouth who wants to be the boss of the body and make all the decisions about what to eat. The other characters and colorful illustrations tell a clever tale of how the body responds to the mouth being Greedy and overeating. Although written for young children, the book offers a creative approach for educators and parents to address ideas about junk food, nutrition and the growing problem of childhood obesity.
