

God the Son is a controversial figure. Various religions have made claims about Him which disagree with other religions. The Hebrew and Christian Scriptures, alone, detail Who He is, why He came, and what He did. Those Scriptures reveal that He is the sole means of salvation for mankind. Those Scriptures also reveal truths which can appear contradictory – He is God and He is man. Yet both these truths are crucial to what He accomplished. To the surprise of many people, He has been active for all eternity, and remains active. This set of studies will consider His work in the past, present and future. It will examine what it meant for Him to become human, and what He accomplished by doing so. The Son is deserving object of our worship, and subject of our study.
