

subtopia [sʔbʔtʔpʔ] n (Social Science / Human Geography) Britsuburban development that encroaches on rural areas yet appears to offer the attractions of country life to suburban dwellers [blend of suburb + Utopia] subtopian adj Like so many words in the English language, subtopia is subject to change. When founder Trevor D. Richardson started The Subtopian, he took it to mean a world between possibilities. It isn't perfect, not yet, but it's not quite Armageddon either. This is Subtopia and we are still waiting to see which way this pendulum swings. The Subtopian is proud to present its first collection of stories. This anthology of the best stories published so far represents the authors and the ideals that have come to form the foundation of The Subtopian Magazine. Dealing with the issues of our impending future, these stories darkly and humorously express a view of society in between two extremes. We are not Utopia or Dystopia -- yet. We are Subtopian.
