As a grade-school graduate going into high school, Kirsten felt the weight of her rite of passage into the unknown. Sensing she and her classmates needed some extra guidance and wisdom as they journeyed into the next phase of adulthood, she asked several leading members of our countries if they would send their advice to her and her mates on preparing for the next step in life. She received an unexpected and overwhelming response from political, business, entertainment and sports leaders, and celebrities who offered the wisdom they had collected from years of experience. In this edition is some of the most inspiring and instructional wisdom, from top leaders, to help our teens as they make their way in a complex world. A great gift for any teen. Great wisdom for any age!
