

One warm Wednesday morning, the sun winked through Wombats window and woke her up. What a wonderful day to wander the world, she thought. What if Wombat woke one Wednesday with wanderlust? What if she wrangled her wander-worthy companions--Weasel and Woodchuck--to wend their way through the world with her? What if the world, the woods, and its wicked things wrestled with their wishes for wild adventure? But what if these wily wanderers used their wits to ward off worries and all the worlds wild creatures? Why, then it would be a most wonderful day to wander the world. 00 Kansas Bill Martin, Jr. Picture Book Award Masterlist and 00-01 Black-Eyed Susan Award Masterlist
