

Alexandre Farto is a 22-year-old Portuguese artist who is fascinated by the destructive effects of time on humans and nature. His work consists of chilling beautiful portraits (painted with paint and bleach first, drilled in to the walls of abandoned buildings and houses) of mostly unknown faces (vagrants, elderly, eccentrics) and collages of urban apartments. Selected Works 2003-2010 is a wonderful tribute to a great talent, beautifully designed by Luis Cruz, with a foreword by Tristan Manco and an introduction by Miguel Moore. Portuguese/English edition
