

In the twilight of the Victorian age a terrifying threat emerges from the shadows. The secret masters who shape mankind's destiny are growing impatient. William Yeats, poet, magician and dreamer, must fight for humanity but first he has to face the truth about fairies - and love.

P.R. Jennings has done something quite amazing and innovative here - a completely original concept, a compelling, fast-paced narrative, unforgettable characters, a gripping plot that constantly takes the reader by surprise and a convincing, atmospheric world in which the whole seductive ensemble is set. I loved it. Highly recommended. Graham Hancock, author of Fingerprints of the Gods and Entangled
