

What Every Holistic Health Practitioner Needs To Know! It doesn't matter what area of holistic health you are involved in, you can find yourself in trouble by taking a medical approach to helping people. This guide is designed to help you to sharpen your holistic health perspective. It is going to teach you how to use the language and terminology of a holistic health practitioner. When you begin to see things from a holistic perspective you will learn that there is really no need to use medical terminology. Even if you are just selling health products and not seeing clients, you should use the proper language.
