The course continues with an examination of how to kill your opponents with skewers! We learn how to maintain the strategic initiative and our openings in this module are The Torre for White and The Kings Indian Defence for Black. Our middlegame section illustrates the power of a queenside attack and we make certain you know about the pitfalls associated with rook pawns in the endgame. (We also make sure you dont lose any more won king and pawn endgames because you didnt understand the concept of The Opposition)As always, this module is liberally peppered with Grandmaster games to demonstrate all the learning points.
